ANNUAL LUAU

Sat., Sept. 6 at 5 p.m.

Mark your calendars and join your neighbors at Juliette Low Park for a Hawaiian Luau of pork loin, Boston butt, a special beverage, soft drinks, and music provided by GNA. To round out the menu kindly bring a covered dish of your choice, preferably something appropriate for a Luau.

There is no charge for GNA member households. Cost for non-resident guests of GNA members or Gordonston residents who are not GNA members: $8 per adult, $15 per adult couple, $5 per teenager age 16 to 18, no charge for those younger than 15.

If you would like to assist with the party, organizers will need help at 4:30PM to setup and again about 9:00PM with the cleanup.

New Neighbors

US Army Warrant Officer Michael Campbell is the new homeowner on E. Henry St. (formerly the Hauck's home). He is originally from Groton, CT and has been serving in the military for 21 years. His most recent postings were in Texas, at Fort Hood and Fort Bliss. From there, he completed two tours in Afghanistan. Campbell is back in Savannah after four years away and is excited to introduce his girlfriend to the area. "My girlfriend Kirsten, from Houston, TX, just graduated from Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center as a Physician Assistant. We met in Fort Bliss and have been together almost a year. We are looking forward to making a new life together in the wonderful area that is Gordonston." Campbell is also a proud of his two daughters, one son and a young grandson.

Gordonston Garden Club News

Alice Henrick is the new president of the Gordonston Garden Club. She is putting together a slate of programs for the coming year. In the meantime, she reminds everyone that fall is the best time of year for working on those gardens. The season is known as the time when plants concentrate on developing sturdy and strong roots for next year's hot season. "So over the next few months get out there and plant/transplant shrubs, trees, perennials, and hardy annuals. It is also the time to divide all your lovelies. Such a busy, busy season! We look forward to seeing you in your garden." And, remember to keep an eye on the Gordonston Gardeners FB page for more detailed monthly tips and suggestions.

A Note from Kate Marsters

Neighbors, you made my time as editor of our Gazette a rich and rewarding experience. With this issue, Meaghan Walsh Gerard takes the reins as the new editor. With your help, she is sure to enjoy the job as much as I did. Her fresh ideas and willingness to jump in for a stint with GNA are a large part of what keeps our evolving neighborhood alive and what makes Gordonston a great place to live. I know you will join me in welcoming Meaghan. My thanks to you all.

Sincerely,
Kate Marsters
